Sarah Mann - CV

Sarah Mann started her investment career with Smith & Williamson in 1990, where she was promoted to Director of Investment Management, and specialised in running portfolios which required a lower risk approach, such as pension schemes and trusts including those resulting from clinical negligence settlements. Sarah joined Seven Investment Management's Advisor team in 2003, where she worked closely with financial planners to ensure that their clients' portfolios were managed on a risk-efficient basis to meet their financial aims, as well as to deliver on their expectations of a high level of personal service. Sarah joined Standard Life Wealth in November 2008.

Sarah is a Fellow of the Securities & Investment Institute and also holds the Chartered Insurance Institute's Financial Planning Certificate.
